The program requires that a minimum of 8 students in a class must complete the challenge in order for those registered in that class to get a ticket. Currently we only have ONE class who has at least 8 students registered. It's not too late to sign up, but don't wait much longer if you plan to complete the six hours of reading. The deadline to complete the reading hours is Friday, April 17. If you have questions, please contact your child's teacher.
